RECONNECT

THREE GENERATIONS

PRIORITY PARENTING

If you asked your kids, “what is my priority for you?”, would you like their answer?

- 54% of kids feel their parents check their mobile devices too much.
- 32% said kids feel unimportant when their parents are distracted by their phones.

PRIORITY #1

Jesus OVER Everything Else
Ephesians 6:4

Is your family calendar prioritized well?

“Further complicating matters is the fact that while the emotional limbic system is highly aroused early in adolescents, the brain’s control center—specifically the pre-frontal cortex—matures last. The pre-frontal cortex directs executive functions; its roles include forethought and planning, judgment, decision-making, and self-regulation.”

Dr. Jeremy and Jerusha Clark,
Your Teenager Is Not Crazy

PRIORITY #2

Confession OVER Perfection
James 5:16

Fuller Youth Institute Interview:

“When it comes to talking with young people, the key is to get beyond the technology and get to the root of what’s happening. It starts by neither fearing technology nor presuming it to be the center of everything. It’s simply that which mirrors and magnifies everyday life.”

PRIORITY #3

Understanding OVER Disengaging
Ephesians 4:2-3

- 71% of teens say they hide online activity from their parents.
- 50% of teens say they are addicted to their mobile devices.

OPERATION LOIS

2 Timothy 1:5

Psalms 71:17-18

Proverbs 17:6

2 Timothy 2:1-2
